

Thank you very much for agreeing to write a book review for the Journal of Australian, Canadian, and Aotearoa New Zealand Studies (JACANZS) ☺ It will be great to receive your review within eight weeks after you receive your copy of the book as a Word document. Reviews should be 500-750 words in length. In terms of format, it would be good if your review could be indented on the left, use Arial font, size 12, and be single-spaced. Direct quotations from the book that you are reviewing should be kept at a minimum, and where included should use ‘ ‘ and “ “ for any quotes within quotes, and have the page number directly following in brackets, i.e. (p. 5). The book details at the top of the review should be in the format of the following examples:

Jatinder Mann, Redefining Citizenship in Australia, Canada, and Aotearoa New Zealand (New York: Peter Lang Publishing, 2019), 188pp. Hardback. £72.60. ISBN: 978-1-4331-5108-8.

Jatinder Mann (Editor), Citizenship in Transnational Perspective: Australia, Canada, and New Zealand, 2nd Revised Edition (New York: Palgrave Macmillan, 2023), 322pp. Paperback. £119.99. ISBN: 978-3-0313-4357-5.

JACANZS now also accepts reflective reviews. These are reviews in which the book lends itself to deeper contemplation in terms of historiography, contemporary politics, or the reflections on the life of the book reviewer themselves. These reviews follow the same general formatting guidelines as above, except they can be 1000-1500 words in length. We ask that reflective reviews be submitted within twelve weeks after you receive your copy of the book. Should you wish to write a reflective review please flag this for Dr. Jatinder Mann via the email address below.
